PREPARING CONTRACTORS FOR BIDDING OPPORTUNITIES ON STATE AND FEDERAL PROJECTS

With the downturn in the overall economy and in construction activity in the Hawaii private sector market, both the State of Hawaii's Capital Improvement Program and potential for Federal Stimulus infrastructure funding, are going to be more important than ever to the survival of the construction economy. Contractors need to be prepared to take on public work; State construction, particularly in energy, education and health facilities renovation, is where projects are in the pipeline and the money is be available for the next few years.

ABC is working with the DLIR, DAGS, US ACE, NAVFAC and other agencies to

- Increase the number of contractors, including ABC merit shop members, bidding on state construction contracts
- Provide specific and comprehensive information and guidance on state government procurement processes and requirements to
 - give you the knowledge and confidence to bid or subcontract on state construction jobs
 - overcome perceived hassles and hurdles to doing public work!
- Give accurate and timely information on relevant laws and safety standards that will ensure compliance and success in the execution of bids
- Establish a working partnership between the local construction industry and state and federal agencies that supports making Hawaii contractors the best eligible bidders on public construction contracts.
